Event Guide Form

This Fall we will be distributing an event guide to attendees of the Montgomery County College Expo on October 11, 2006. Additional copies will also be distributed prior to the event through county schools. This guide will include a map of the event and a list of each college that is represented at the fair. Your college will be included on a grid which indicates whether your school is public or private and the size range for number of undergraduate students at your institution. Various articles about financial aid, scholarships, etc. may also be included in the guide.

Regardless of whether your college is participating in this fair or not, this is your opportunity to reach thousands of Maryland high school students and their families who are exploring their future college careers. Take this opportunity to put your name in front of these consumers of education as they make various decisions during the college selection process by placing an ad in this special event guide.
